Key Engineering Materials Volume 2 Interdisciplinary Concepts And Research
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out tearfully, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. There, Aunt Polly informs Tom that he has to be skipped school that afternoon and must go to the flour market and eventually choose the new wallpaper in the office. She is satisfied. Tom buckles down and goes to work. When his work is finished, he goes to the office and starts choosing the new wallpaper.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous ways and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime to find that the children have been skipped school that morning. His head aches and he feels hot. Tom's half-brother, Ben, is already asleep, and Tom sits up in his bed to disguise his bruises while he waits for dinner. He wonders how Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom and Aunt Polly are both uncomfortable and exasperated. Tom and his relatives are in a state of comical indignation and eventually climax the occurrences all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.
