The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s escapades and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime and is mellow and well-hung about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he has completely missed school that afternoon and must go back. Tom has never been so happy in his life. He is so afraid of Aunt Polly that he will do anything to avoid her wrath. Tom has sworn the首创 himself to disguise his face and appearance and eventually chooses the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “whitewash,” a kind of made-up shirt. Aunt Polly refuses, but Aunt Polly appears and chooses him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
