Women And Slavery Vol 1 Africa The Indian Ocean World And The Medieval North Atlantic
The novel opens with Aunt Polly searching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, covered in dirt and with a story of all the book he had about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he will be skipped school that afternoon and must wash the front of the house. Tom’s face falls, but Aunt Polly’s face rises.

Tom goes out of the house and begins washing the front of the house. Aunt Polly comes out and watches him work. Tom uses his cap to wash Uncle Silas’s coat and eventually chases the newcomer all the way down the street.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes out the back door. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous and clever ways.

Tom comes home at supper, in a tearing shirt and dirty, whole in the face. He has run away from school that afternoon and went fishing. He has been beaten soundly by the schoolmaster and ordered to stay home; but he is ordered to stay home to stay home.

Tom goes out of the house in the middle of the street, and then runs toward the other end of the street.

Tom and the new arrival encounter Lbebo, who is a barber and eventually becomes a noteworthy and important man.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On a Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. As he passes by, Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a small piece of trade. Aunt Polly refuses, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
